“The Newspaper Chair”
pp 112 Hans J. Wegner 1978.

In 1978, Wegner returned to the themes of his early Chinese and English Winsor Chairs to design pp 112. In combining features of these designs Wegner, created a light and elegant easy chair.

pp 112 is brilliant example of Wegner’s practical thinking and his insistence on simplicity in construction and design.

When settled comfortably in the chair the sitters arms fall naturally at rest ready to read a broadsheet newspaper.

“The chair must provide the correct support for the elbows and the back.”

Hans J. Wegner.
