pp 201 Hans J. Wegner 1969.

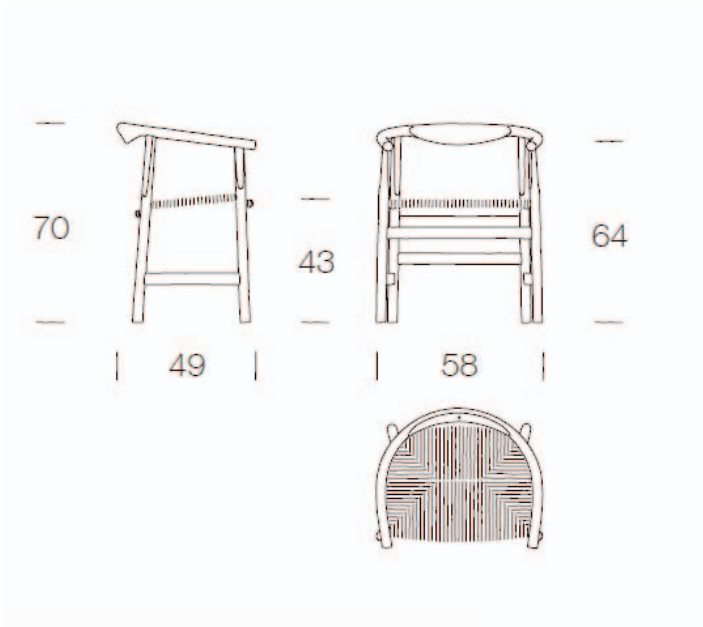

pp 201& pp 203 mark one of the most important milestones in the partnership between Hans J. Wegner and PP Møbler. Until 1969, PP Møbler had been more of a free space for Wegner to work amongst friends rather than a business partner.

The PP workshop was an the environment where he could conceive ideas and experiment throughout the 1960's to the end of his career.

Wegner designed the chairs specifically for the companies skilled craftsmen and he actively encouraged the Company to initiate their own line of products and sales department.

"I like to spend time with people who like their work and who take great pleasure in creating the most beautiful result possible"

Hans J. Wegner.
